JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Heavenly God, around us we see plaques and windows impressed with high-souled words like "fellowship", "democracy", "progress", and so forth. Please help this fellowship of representatives invoke their sense of democracy that progress may be made here today and throughout this special session.

We fight wars with weapons of destruction to protect those values. Help these women and men fight with those equally potent weapons - like the arsenal of thought and common sense, discussion, openness, and compassion. And, God, may the successful and the rich, and the marginalized little people, the hopelessly poor, children, the weak, the mentally and physically infirm, be remembered and valued as decisions are made. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILL

HB 30 was read the second time.

On motion of Representative Crowell, the House recessed until such time as the appropriations bills and a supplemental calendar are distributed.

The hour of recess having expired, the House was called to order by Speaker Hanaway.
